

Planet Telos: Gunboat Diplomacy

The planet Telos is known as one of the galaxy's richest... and its most corrupt. One of the political seats of this quadrant, Telos is currently the site of an important political negotiation between a tyrannical regime, the Imperium, and an alliance of former colonies that have risen up in rebellion. Talks between the Imperium and the Colonies could result in lasting peace, and all parties are nervously optimistic. But danger lurks nearby, and if anything goes wrong it could drag the galaxy back into a war it can no longer afford...
